ECHOES OF THE PAST

(By Courier Staff Member)

Review of the news as it appeared in the Bucks County Gazette issue dated at Bristol Mar. 4, 1897. The Gazette, a weekly newspaper published in Bristol, was discontinued following its merger with the Courier.

Mr. Frederick Stuckert... has gone into the real estate and insurance business. He has his office with John C. Stuckert, Esq., on Mill street.

The artesian well that is being driven at the new ice plant is down 30 feet below the surface. The well will be sunk until rock is struck. To obtain good water. The last 25 feet has been through sandy clay formations.

The officials of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company have notified their boatmen and other employees that navigation on the Lehigh and Delaware Division Canal will be resumed on Wednesday, March 10th, between Cherry Ford on the Lehigh, to Bristol. There is also to be a change in the running of their "liners" and leased boats, as superintendent Ruddle will endeavor to have arrangements that will save considerable trouble and expense to the canal company.

(Following items from Gazette of March 11, 1897.)

There was great excitement at Fallsington one day last week over a mad dog which had strayed into the town. The animal was a large and beautiful Newfoundland. Several dogs were bitten, and about 20 canines have been killed in consequence thereof. Three hogs and one dog the property of Charles Pope, were bitten before the maddened beast was shot by Mr. Pope. Philip Longhurst, a young married man living near Fallsington, was bitten on the wrist by the dog, and he has been sent to the Pasture Institute, New York, for treatment. Dr. Richards, of Fallsington, removed the dead dog's brains and has sent them to the Pasture Institute for examination.

Mr. J. A. Adams, a wealthy New Yorker, after visiting over 30 places in different states searching for a summer home that would suit his taste, has selected the old homestead of 40 acres, near Johnsonville station, on the old York pike about a mile from the New York branch of the Reading railroad, owned by ex-Sheriff J. Johnson Beams. The price obtained of $300 an acre is the best received for Bucks County real estate, similarly situated, for a number of years. The house and buildings on the premises are 180 years old.

The Bristol and Langhorne Trolley Company has placed an order with a Philadelphia firm for the construction of one closed and two open cars for their new road. The company has also rented the summer resort of Parkland for the season and will construct a branch road from the power station at

SPRAINS

The Athlete should read the following testimonial:
Why suffer the after effects of old injuries, sprains, torn muscles or ligaments? My trouble started several years ago when I was playing basketball. I am six feet three and weighing well over two hundred pounds, every time I would jump for the ball my ankles and ankles would suffer, my ankles and ankles became so weak and I sprained my ankle to the extent that I could not bear my weight on it. After taking a Chiropractic treatment from Dr. Hand I received immediate relief. I have taken my friends to his office and all have been helped.

LANDING CRAFT

They were hideous, gallant ships, those LSTs and LSMs that swarmed out of scores of shipyards during the war. And if the boys who manned them intimate they won the war, there's substance to the claim.

Landing craft were masters of the dirty arts of war. They were built to do something no self-respecting ship could do—run aground. They hauled supplies and food and material, and trucks and tanks and guns—and men who were about to die. They ploughed them across the Atlantic and the vast, lonely Pacific, and poured them out on a hundred enemy beachheads.

Some of them led routine careers, but many really saw the war, from Britain and Normandy to the Mediterranean to Africa, India and Okinawa.

Election Is Tomorrow

As was revealed last week, the Chairman's eagerness to carry off what he apparently considers a choice "plum" led to letters being mailed to Republican voters over his name, showing them how to vote straight Republican against the ticket he is supposed to be fighting to elect—how to vote against all Democratic candidates except himself, and asking these Republicans to cut one of their own candidates to give him a vote.

What the Democratic reaction will be to exposure of letters thus mailed out over their County Chairman's name, showing how to vote for himself and against the rest of his own ticket, the election returns will tell.

Meanwhile, the Republican electors have two major responsibilities. One is the important assignment of being sure that they, their friends, and the members of their families, get to the polls. BE SURE TO VOTE!

The other is to help along the rising Republican tide by casting their ballot for all the State, County and local Republican candidates.

REMEMBER, you can vote for every Republican nominee on the ballot by making a single cross-mark.

Simply put an (X) after the word Republican where it appears on the ballot in heavy type, thus:

REPUBLICAN X

Miss Marjorie M. Faulkner Is Bride of Charles G. Young, Jr.

Escorted to the altar of Bristol Presbyterian Church by her father, Miss Marjorie Mary Faulkner on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock became the bride of Mr. Charles G. Young, Jr., of 8028 Walker street, Philadelphia. The Rev. Edward G. Yeomans, pastor of the church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Faulkner, 784 Third avenue, to the Philadelphian.

Selections sung by Miss Jean Stetson, of Otter street, were "Because," "One Alone" and "At Dawning." Her accompanist was Mrs. Marburg D. Weagley, of Mulberry street.

The bride was gown in white brocaded satin, entrain, it being patterned with sweetheart neckline, circular bustle and long sleeves tapering over her hands. With this was worn a Dutch crown of seed pearls. The arm bouquet which she carried was composed of white chrysanthemums and baby breath, in the center of which appeared a lavender orchid.

The bridal party was inclusive of the following: Mrs. John Howard Smith, Second avenue, matron of honor; Miss Bernice Young, Philadelphia, sister of the bridegroom; and Miss Dorothy Begany, of Kingston, bridesmaids; Mr. Alfred Young, Philadelphia, brother of the bridegroom; best man; Mr. Howard Dentz, of Nyack, N. Y., and Mr. Elmer F. Storms, Jr., Hulmeville, ushers.

The matron of honor selected for the occasion a gown of olive green taffeta with hoop skirt, sweetheart neckline, cap sleeves, matching mitts, and silver slippers. Her hat was also of olive green, and she carried an arm bouquet of bronze-toned chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids' gowns were patterned like that of the matron of honor, but were in dusty rose tone. They wore rose-toned taffeta hats, silver slippers, and carried arm bouquets of orchid-colored chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Faulkner, mother of the bride, was attired in a blackberry crepe dress, wore a fuchsia hat and black accessories, and a corsage of white rose-buds.

A reception was held in I. O. O. F. hall, Radcliffe and Walnut streets, with guests attending from Trenton, N. J.; Nyack, N. Y.; Scranton, Kingston, Philadelphia and Bristol. Leaving for a motor trip through the New England states, Mrs. Young was attired in a suit of hunter green, wore black accessories, and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. A graduate of Bristol high school, class of 1914, and of Rider College, Trenton, N. J., she was until recently employed by the Hunter-Wilson Distilling Co. Mr. Young, a graduate of Frankford high school, Philadelphia, is employed by Giles Manufacturing Co., Bristol township. During the war he served as

Today's Quiet Moment

By the Rev. Albert W. Eastburn
Rector
Christ P. E. Church, Eddington

O God, who hast so wonderfully made thy Church, and has brought it out of the furnace of fire, and hast set us in it to learn and to try to do Thy will; accept and sanctify our service by the inspiration of Thy Holy Spirit. Teach us to live together in love and joy and peace; to check all bitterness; to disown discouragement; to practice thanksgiving, and to leap with joy to any task for others. Strengthen the good thing thus begun; that with gallant and high-hearted happiness we may work for Thy Kingdom in the wills of men. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A first lieutenant and fighter pilot in the U. S. Army 9th Air Force. He is a member of the Air Corps Reserve. The couple will reside at 784 Third avenue.

The bride's gifts to her attendants were pendant necklaces, and the bridegroom gave the best man and ushers matching tie clasps and belt buckles.

ST. ANN'S FALLS BEFORE A STRONG BURLINGTON TEAM

Well-Drilled Hope Fire Co. Eleven Wins by Score of 13 to 0

ST. ANN'S OUTPLAYED Crowd Estimated at 4,000; Interest Ran High

BURLINGTON, N. J., Nov. 3.—A well drilled Hope Fire Company team, using a diversified attack from start to finish, won its seventh straight game yesterday afternoon, beating the St. Ann's gridsters, 13-0, before a crowd of approximately 4,000 fans on the Burlington High School field.

The Jersey gridsters clearly outplayed the Bristol boys despite a gallant goal-line stand in the second quarter by the Purple and Gold team. This stand was the outstanding feature of the game.

The Hope had executed an air play with Bobby Bauroth tossing the ball to Joe Behot who was knocked out of bounds on the 18-yard line. In two plays, Makuka carried the ball to the 2-yard line on a first down. It looked like a sure touchdown as Chemingo went to the 3-inch line on the first plunge. But on the other three tries, Makuka, Bauroth, and Makuka again failed to gain the necessary three inches, the ball being one inch away on the fourth try. Lelinski then booted out of danger.

It was a 45-yard run by "Danny" Montagna which gave Hope its initial touchdown. Lelinski had kicked from his ten to the 45 where Danny started to run towards the Burlington bench. He was trapped, so reversed his field. Dedentino almost had the runner but was blocked out by Bauroth, the runner scoring with ease. Bauroth added the extra point via a placement with Behot holding the ball.

The second Jersey's twin-pointer was well earned, Burlington working the ball from their 35-yard line for the score. Line plays scored the touchdown. Burlington making six first downs in succession. The "Saints" put up another stand on the two-yard line, it taking Hope four downs to make the score with "Steve" Makuka going over. Bauroth missed the extra point.

St. Ann's missed its best opportunity to score immediately after the kick following the first Burlington score. Marion rifled a "sleeper" pass to "Howie" Keyes on the 40-yard line but in his haste to get away, Keyes dropped the ball with no one within 20 yards of him. "Jim" Spencer intercepted a pass in the final quarter and was headed for a touchdown with five men for interference but Montagna broke through the wedge to tackle the runner.

Montague, "Teddy" Sak and "Bobby" Bauroth played the best game for the winners with Bauroth setting up the plays and doing the blocking.

During the kicking duel which existed in the first half both Nick Lomma and Stan Lelinski got off some nice kicks to keep Burlington in its own territory. Tom Proby and Denny played best in the line.

Burlington had 12 first downs to the Bristol team's three. Between halves the fans were entertained by music and drills by the Scully-Bozarth Girls Cadet Corps, of Burlington, and the Bugle Corps of the Robert W. Bracken Post, American Legion, Bristol.

PALMYRA PANTHERS WIN OVER GOODWILL

PALMYRA, N. J., Nov. 3.—An automatic safety in the last fifty-five seconds of the game gave the Palmyra Panthers a 2-0 win over the Goodwill Hose gridiron team yesterday afternoon on the Palmyra high school field.

Goodwill had received possession of the ball on its seven yard line when Trapp intercepted a pass. For being too long in the huddle, the hosemen were slapped a penalty of five yards putting the ball on the 2-yard line. "Kenny" Maag went back to kick out of danger but stepped back too far and his foot went over the end zone line, giving Palmyra an automatic safety, the only score of the tilt.

The defense of the Palmyra team proved too tough for the Bristol boys to penetrate as they were credited with two first downs during the entire sixty minutes. Singer made the initial first down on a 9-yard slice at tackle and a 16-plunge. The second first down was the result of a 20-yard pass thrown by Stiles.

The winning aggregation totaled 11 first downs after being held without a down in the first quarter with neither team making headway and being forced to kick consistently.

The firemen never had a serious threat to register a score and was on the defense most of the tilt.

Joe Singer played good football for the losing team with Matt Bragg doing nice work in the line. Piergrass and Devinney were outstanding for the Palmyra team.

The Goodwill team will be idle next Sunday.

Selection of Mrs. Ryan for the ceremony was a brown dress and pink accessories; while Mrs. Trindle, mother of the bridegroom, wore a green dress with black accessories. Both wore white rose-bud corsages.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mark's commercial school.

Langhorne Wins Over Bristol High

The Bunnies some spirit for the first time during the afternoon as DeRisi made a first down on his own 45 and a 15-yard penalty put the ball on Langhorne's 40. DeRisi then drove to the Redskins' 35 before Beswick intercepted an aerial to stop the rally.

Poor field generalship also contributed to the Bristol team's poor showing. On two occasions, with the ball in their own territory, the Bristolians chose to run the ball on fourth down with more than three yards to make a first down. They lost the ball on both occasions whereby a kick would have put Langhorne deep in their territory. Langhorne made its first score early in the contest, George Beswick recovered a Bristol fumble on the 20-yard line. Beswick, Fizzano and Smith crashed the line for a first down on the 8-yard line. On a reverse, Brown skirted his left end for the touchdown and then converted the seventh point.

Bristol had the ball twice before the quarter was over but lost it on a fumble each time. Langhorne came as far as Bristol's 20 in the second quarter, thanks to a 15-yard run by Brown but the Bunnies held for downs.

Bristol stirred up some excitement in the second period when Dick Harmon stood on the goal-line and whipped a thirty-yard pass to Sottile but on the next play, a Bunnies fumbled and Beswick again recovered.

Langhorne's second touchdown came in the final session. Bristol tried for a first down with five yards to go and lost the ball on their 44. Two plays gave Langhorne a first on the Bristol 30. "Bill" Smith worked a beautiful fake and got as far as the 10. Brown then skipped over for the touchdown.

"Army" Fizzano and "Bill" Smith played fine ball in the Langhorne backfield with Beswick getting off some nice kicks. In the line Earhart Elnenkel played good ball.

Langhorne had 14 first downs while Bristol had four.

State Dep't President Is Armistice Speaker

Hopkins, Hulmeville, and McCahan graciously responded. McCahan, during his youth, was a member of the local Legion junior baseball team for seven years.

Mrs. Gerber, the state president, was introduced by the toastmaster, George Stock, who had been presented to the gathering by Mrs. James Tracy, Hulmeville, Auxiliary president. Mrs. Gerber expressed the hope for a good Americanism and national defense program for every auxiliary in the state this year. "We also want the child welfare program to be second to none" was another desire voiced. In respect to this work she informed "we are carrying a 50 per cent larger load than a year ago. Increase in donation to junior baseball, and filling of 10,000 Christmas gift boxes for hospitalized men were other items definitely planned in the state. Plans for having grandstands erected at Coatesville hospital was another project listed for the Auxiliaries, and the guest outlined details for memorial tree plantings along the "Blue Star highway" which will cross this state. Numerous were the reasons mentioned for all eligible to affiliate with the Auxiliary, Mrs. Gerbert showing there is a wide field of work and great need.

Mrs. Anthony Cardamone, of Conshohocken, eastern director, spoke briefly, she telling in particular of "round-up" time, with 100% membership desired.

Herbert Walker, past commander of Soby Post, and now ninth district commander, informed that the ex-service men "will be dumped almost entirely in our laps due to lack of action on the part of Congress." He further advised it will be necessary to close about 12 regional offices of the Veterans Administration, it thus being necessary for the Legion to assume much of the burden. "But we will never let any man suffer because of a Congress which failed to appropriate sufficient money."

Among the others introduced were: Mrs. Frank Cassidy, Langhorne, president of Montgomery-Bucks Council of Auxiliaries; Anthony Cardamone, Conshohocken; Earl Tomlinson, Hulmeville, commander of Soby Post; Belford Hancock, Somerton, district deputy commander, and Mrs. Hancock. The blessing was asked by Roscoe L. Horner.

Program numbers included: Advance of colors by Kathleen McCarthy and "Dolly" Barger; a novelty song by James Brandt, with Mrs. Gilbert Bonnell as pianist; instrumental numbers by Mrs. Helen Kalmbach and Miss Gertrude Kalmbach, Philadelphia. The latter two offered Brahms' "Lullaby," "The Lorelei," and "The Mocking Bird" as a duet on the guitar and musical glasses; and also a group of numbers on the zither and mandolin.

Table decorations, including bouquets of roses, were in charge of James Morrow. A decorated cake was presented to Mrs. Lawrence Arment and son, Henry Arment, for winning the "cake walk."

Uncover A Hidden Gov't Threatening Efforts In Japan

abolished by SCAP directive and SCAP enforcement."

A MacArthur spokesman warned Japanese officials at the same time that unless they break up "these clannish-clandestine combinations of political-gangsters all the gains of the past two years toward attaining democratic government will be imperiled if not extinguished."

Charles L. Kades, of Newburgh, N. Y., deputy chief of Gen. MacArthur's government section, told the government representatives: "This is the same type of under-far world political combination, the terrorist activities of which led Japan successively through government by intimidation and assassination into totalitarianism and finally into war."

The controls are exerted in every phase of Japanese life. Bootblacks and prime ministers are involved. So are farmers and politicians, fishermen and gangsters, geisha and construction contractors, judges and murderers.

The "hidden government" involves blood pledges, in which a boss drinks the blood of his follower from a wine cup in a ritual which binds the pair together until death.

It involves the organization of the street stall vendors, of whom there are 45,000 in Tokyo alone, of the bootblacks, prostitutes, gamblers, construction workers, fishermen and farmers.

It siphons money extorted from these lowly people up into the political parties and the political bosses. It delivers the votes of these people to the political parties.

It provides strong arm men and, if necessary, killers, for the political boss, who in return supply immunity from the law, freedom of action and other official favors.

MacArthur's investigators run into the system at every turn. Purges, such as Ichiro Hatoyama who almost became prime minister, still wield enormous political power.

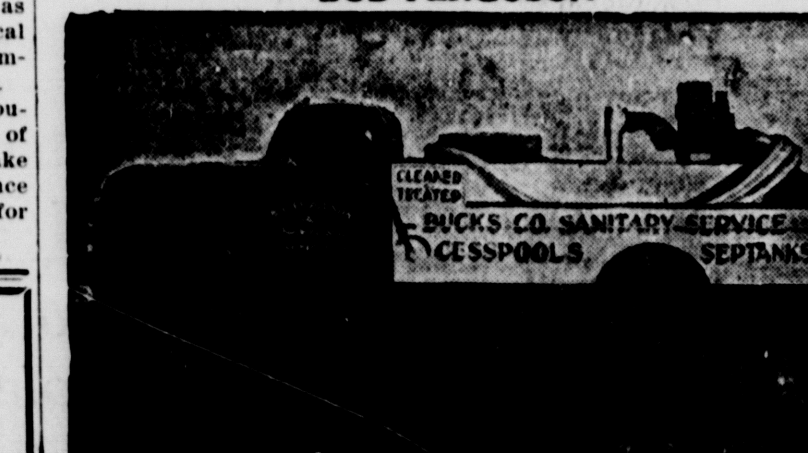

Government officials refuse to take action against racketeering construction contractors although the black market prices they charge for their work is wrecking the economy of Japan.

A year ago SCAP investigators discovered 20,000 slave laborers in the Hokkaido coal mines, and now they suspect that the slave labor system has been reinstated.

In scores of local elections the voters were forced to cast ballots in contests in which there was but a single candidate.

The "hidden government" is bas-
